

MGI Perth appoints two new directors

9 August 2010

Business advisory and accounting firm, MGI Perth, today announced the appointment of two new directors.

Silvia Caratti and David Montani have been appointed as Director, Business Services and Director, Tax Consulting respectively.

Ms Caratti has worked with MGI Perth since 1997 in various roles including Associate Director most recently. A highly experienced practitioner, Ms Caratti's focus is on client strategies in business growth. She also has an active involvement with the Institute of Chartered Accountants and sits on the WA Board of PEAC.

Since rejoining MGI Perth in 2008, Mr Montani has taken a leading role, as an Associate Director, in establishing the firm's tax consulting division, delivering a highly professional and expert methodology in this very competitive area.

Commenting on the appointments, Managing Director, Bruce Fielding said: "Our ongoing commitment is to provide our clients with the expertise to respond to today's complex business challenges.

"Silvia and David's leadership in their respective areas have been instrumental in achieving this. Their experience and depth of knowledge in these sectors will be a great asset to the firm."
